

JE SUIS BOBO

Sergio Staino with Laura Montanari and Fabio Galati

In conversation with Fabio Galati and Laura Montanari, Sergio Staino – one of Italy's most renowned cartoonists, sharp narrator of the Bel Paese and close friend with the late Georges Wolinski – talks about his alter ego Bobo, the childhood in Florence, and his love with Bibi.

A book that will make you laugh and dream at the same time. A book to reconsider the nature and purpose of satire after the murders of the cartoonists and journalists at the offices of the magazine Charlie Hebdo in Paris.

A unique testimony, richly illustrated.
